

Ritika Kushwah

Veterinarian

Profile

Patient and client-focused veterinarian with proven leadership in veterinary practice management backed by successful career as clinical practitioner in small animal medicine and surgery. Expertise in diagnosis of disease, animal nutrition and preventive medicine along with client communication. Collaborative and motivating team builder with proven strengths in operations management, strategic planning and organizational transformation.

Education

04/2024 – 01/2026
Mhow

MVSC (Veterinary Medicine), College of Veterinary Science and Animal husbandry

- OGPA 8.1
- Thesis Paper: Study on prevalence and therapeutic management of dilated cardiomyopathy in dogs

2018 – 2024
Mhow

BVSc and A.H, College of veterinary science and animal husbandry

Skills

- Teambuilding
- Organization and Time management
- Client handling and communication
- Multitasking abilities

Accomplishments

Participated in Reptile session workshop

Published article titled "Study on prevalence and clinical features of dilated cardiomyopathy in dogs in MHOW and Indore". NAAS rating- 5.29

Published article titled "Study on prevalence of cardiac arrhythmias in dogs". NAAS rating – 5.29

Experience

Engaged in veterinary clinical practice with a primary focus on preventive healthcare, chronic disease management and emergency medicine in both small and large animals. Contributed to improved clinical outcomes and optimized patient recovery through systematic case management and follow-up protocols. During the internship, acquired practical skills through active involvement in a range of professional duties at:

- Vanbandhu College of Veterinary Science & Animal Husbandry, Navsari
- State Veterinary Hospital, Bhopal
- Kesla poultry society, Kesla, Itarsi.
- Raksha Bird treatment camp, Jaipur
- Anand's NGO, Mhow